THE JET PROPULSION LABORATORY LIBRARY

The JPL Library provides technical information and bibliographic support for the Laboratory with collections of 93,137 books, 39,353 bound periodicals, 66,393 technical documents, and 981,073 microfiche. The Library also subscribes to 2,420 periodicals and has a strong collection of abstracts and indexes to the world literature in science and technology. In addition, JPL employees have direct access to Caltech Libraries and the Pasadena Public Library.

Periodical Reading Room. Current issues of selected periodical titles.

Microfiche. The Library's microfiche collection offers rapid access to a large number of technical publications. The Library provides duplicate microfiche and hard copy from the microfiche collection. Readers and reader-printers are available throughout the Laboratory.

Services

Circulation. Loans, recalls, inventory. (Ext. 3840)

Reference. Regular library reference and information services. (Ext. 4200)

Online Data Base Center. Computer searches on specific subjects. (Ext. 6911)

NASA/RECON (Remote Console). Rapid information retrieval is available from NASA's computer data bank of 1.2 million indexed documents via an on-line, remote-access, cathode-ray tube display and adjoining teletype printing unit. (Ext. 6911)

Other Computer Search Services. On-line access is also available to other governmental and commercial data bases such as DOE/RECON, NTIS, SSIE, COMPENDEX, CHEMCON, etc. (Ext. 6911)

NASA/SCAN (Selected Current Aerospace Notices). A current awareness service providing biweekly notifications of the latest aerospace reports and articles on 186 topics of special interest is available. (Ext. 3840)

Photocopying. The Library has a high speed photocopier for its users.

Translations. The Library obtains translations of foreign language articles. (Ext. 4200)

PUBLICATIONS

Library Additions. A monthly list of new acquisitions. (Ext. 4200)

JPL Journal Holdings List. A complete list of periodicals received by the Laboratory. (Ext. 4200)

LIBRARY TOURS

Inquire at Reference Desk. (Ext. 4200)

JPL LIBRARY ADDITIONS

JET PROPULSION LABORATORY LIBRARY ADDITIONS INTRODUCTION

The Library Additions is a bimonthly publication announcing books and technical reports received from NASA, DOD, DOE, the aerospace industry, various research laboratories and universities. JPL internal reports are also listed. New journal subscriptions and recent online computer searches are announced.

Each document is listed only once in this publication, even, though it might contain data pertinent to several subject fields.

Readers may request any book or document listed in this Additions (with the exception of those marked REFERENCE or EXTENDED LOAN) by filling out the form provided at the end of this publication and sending the completed form to the Library.

JPL publications may be ordered from the Project Support and Document Review Group X3187. Internal reports are ordered from the Vellum File, X6222.

The Library also regularly receives microfiche of documents announced in STAR, IAA, TAB, and ERA. These are not re-announced in the Additions, but are available on request.
